Great excitement exists in Rice county over this bloody affair.

Great Republican Meeting.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 19.—A Republican mass meeting and torchlight procession took place this evening. It is estimated that about 4 000 torches were in line, presenting a very imposing appearance. The public square was elaborately illuminated, a salute was fired, and a liberal display of fireworks was made. A large concourse of people assembled in the square to hear the speakers. Colonel Ingersoll, of Illinois, spoke two hours. He was followed by Judge Dittenhoefer, of New York.

THE SIOUX CAMPAIGN.

Dispatch from Gen. Terry.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The following was received at military headquarters:

FORT BUFORD, D. T., Sept. 11.

I arrived here on the 7th. On the 9th information reached me that a considerable body of hostile Sioux had appeared at Wolf Point, about 85 miles above Buford. I therefore directed Maj. Reno, with the 5th cavalry, with his own regiment and Maj. Morris' battalion, the 6th, to march from his position on the Yellowstone for that place. I go up the river to-day to meet him.

ALFRED H. TERRY, Bvt. Gen.

Red Cloud Agency Indians Refuse to Talk.

RED CLOUD AGENCY, Neb., Sept. 18, via Sidney, Sept. 19.—I improve an opportunity to send out a dispatch in advance of time to day. Matters begin to assume a serious aspect, and appearances indicate there will be no Indians here to-day, notwithstanding the fact they have all been told a week ago that they would be expected to give a final answer to-day. With the exception of about a dozen lodges of the Loafer Band, all the Indians belonging to this agency have moved down to Shadron creek, 20 miles away, ostensibly for the purpose of consulting with Spotted Tail's Indians. But it is now thought here the move was for the purpose of getting away from the commissioners, with whom they do not wish to treat. A Spotted Tail Indian told one of our party, on condition that his name should not be made known, that the Indians at both agencies were considering whether they had better run away from the agencies altogether or fight. The commissioners now think they will proceed to Spotted Tail to-morrow and hold a council there, if no Indians attend here. It is a curious fact that Red Cloud has been for two months past in frequent receipt of letters from Fort Peck, on the Missouri river, some of which are so heavy as to require nine cents' postage. It is reported that the tenor of these letters is urging him not to sell a foot of the Black Hills country.

I have some additional points from Gruard, Crook's scout, who came in recently. He says at Crook's late fight a guidon belonging to the 7th cavalry, also a number of horses and saddles belonging to Curtis' command, were captured. He says the capture of corn, sugar and coffee landed at the mouth of Powder river by the overloaded steamer last month, gave the hostiles abundance of supplies.

The Blackfeet Indians are to Remain Neutral.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The first official communication from the Blackfeet tribes of Indians was received from the Canadian government at military headquarters here to-day in the form of a long letter from S. A. Denny, of the Canadian mounted police, which gives an account of the writer's experience in his recent trip among the savages, and of the negotiations which they carried on with each other, and which terminated in the promise of the Blackfeet that they would not ally themselves with the American Indians against the whites.

The Indian Council at Red Cloud a Failure.

RED CLOUD AGENCY, Sept. 18, via Fort Laramie, Sept. 19.—The expected council with the Indians, set for to-day, was a failure, no Sioux having been present. The Arapahoes came in and had a talk. They said their minds were made up, and they were willing to do all the commission asked of them, but were not willing to give their answer until the Sioux gave theirs. Day after to-morrow is issue day; the commission are seriously considering the propriety of instructing the agent not to issue a pound of rations to Red Cloud's people until they give an answer to the propositions. The main camp of the Indians is still down at Shadron creek, 20 miles east of here.

Indian Depredations.

J. W. Dear, agency trader here, had nine horses stolen and one killed by the Indians in a raid on his hay camp on Snake river, fifty miles south, on the Sidney road, last evening. This afternoon a party of cavalry started out in pursuit of the raiders, expecting to reach the hay camp to-night and start out on the Indian trail early to-morrow morning.

Letter from Blue Horse.

The following letter has just been received by Lieut. Elting, Indian agent, to-night, from Blue Horse, head of Loafer Band, who was sent down to Red Cloud's camp on Saturday to get the Indians to come up to-day:

BOURDEAU CREEK, Sept. 18.—I write this to inform you I got to Red Cloud's and had a council with them, and to inform you everything works well, according to the government commissioners' wish. I am going down to Spotted Tail agency on business and will be back to you in four nights.

The Sioux Seek Offensive Alliances with the Blackfeet Indians.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—A letter from S. E. Denny of the Canadian mounted police was received here to-day at military headquarters, and is the first official information sent this government of the proposed alliance between the Sioux and Blackfeet for warfare on the American whites and on the Crow Indians. Denny was sent to investigate and diplomatise among the savages which he appears to have done successfully. He visited the Blackfeet nation; was cordially received and learned from them that the Sioux had made advances to them for the purpose of getting them to join them in fighting the Crows and other Indians, and also the Americans. The Sioux promised a portion of the spoils, and also a number of white women whom they captured. They promised after the American whites [illegible] exterminated, to go across and [illegible] the Canadian whites. The Blackfeet having refused these propositions, the Sioux threatened to come across and punish them. Denny promised to aid the Blackfeet in case they were attacked, under these circumstances which pleased them so well that they made profuse demonstrations and assertions of eternal friendship for the whites, and threw themselves on the kindness and protection of the Canadians, saying they realized that in time they would be deprived of forage and provisions by the encroachments of the whites. The letter is dated July 14th, and is directed to Lieut. Col. A. G. Irwin, Northwestern Mounted Police.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Babcock's Case Begun.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The case of Bacock was called to-day in the criminal court and the work of securing a jury was begun. It has been decided to try Babcock and T. P. Somerville jointly. Ex-Gov. Sheppard and other friends of Babcock were in court.

The Extradition Treaty Negotiation.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The Tribune's Washington special says: The condition of the negotiation between Great Britain and this country concerning extradition is this: After the Winslow case was settled by the return of the prisoner, our government took the ground that no law of Parliament could under any circumstances be made to abrogate a treaty, while Lord Derby insists that a new treaty must be made on the basis of the law of 1873. Secretary Fish declares the United States cannot take action unless the treaty is recognized as the higher authority, and on this point all correspondence on the subject has ceased. Mr. Fish says any proposition must come from Great Britain, and that none will be entertained other than one admitting our position.

Who are to be Tried in the Safe Burglary Case.

It is understood that Whitely will not be tried in the safe burglary conspiracy case. Those who will be tried are Babcock, Harrington, Nettleship and Somerville. The trial has proceeded only as far as obtaining the jury, and there is much comment to-night on its organization. Three at least, are persons who have held intimate relations with the district ring, or else were employed by Babcock. One was the caterer at the Washington club house, where it is alleged the conspiracy originated, and where the conspirators met after the burglary, and another is said to have been in the employ of Babcock in connection with the public grounds of the city, while another is a discharged treasury clerk. It is freely asserted that the composition of the jury insures a verdict of acquittal.

Healing's Sentence will be Commuted.

The Inter Ocean's Washington special says misapprehensions seem to prevail concerning Healing's case. He will not be pardoned, but his sentence will be committed to three months and his fine reduced to $1 000. The other Chicago whisky men will receive a similar reduction in their sentences.

Presidential Electors Ineligible to Government Offices.

Attorney General Taft this morning decided that a candidate for Presidential Elector cannot simultaneously hold the appointment of U. S. commissioner; also that the same rule applies to attorneys specially employed by the government in cases to assist.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Burned to Death.

VICTORIA, Sept. 19.—A man named Isaac Clarke, a former resident of Red Bluff, California, but who for several years past has lived at North Saanich, was burned to death on Sunday night last. The house in which he lived was completely destroyed, and as he had lived there alone, the origin of the fire cannot be ascertained. The body was so burned as to be beyond recognition.

THE EASTERN WAR.

The Porte's Demands.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—The Porte is disposed to reduce the demand to a war indemnity, the occupation of two Servian fortresses, and the recognition of the Porte's sovereignty by Prince Milan without formal reinvestiture at Constantinople, and the dismissal of the present Servian cabinet. A private telegram from Vienna states that ambassadors at Constantinople have opened negotiations for the signature of a formal armistice for a month.

English Sentiment on the Eastern Question.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—Five thousand workingmen held an enthusiastic meeting on the Eastern question last night at Exeter Hall, over which Henry Fawcett, Liberal member from Hackney presided. Resolutions were passed condemning the Eastern policy of the government, and demanding a meeting of parliament. A vote of thanks to Schuyler, of the American legation at Constantinople, for his report on the Bulgarian outrages was also passed. A large overflow meeting was held in Trafalgar square.

The Control of the Servian Army in Russian Hands.

VIENNA, Sept. 19.—As the Servian government has completely lost control of its army, all command being in Russian hands, it will depend on the good will of Gen. Tchernayoff whether the order for the suspension of hostilities will be obeyed, but as ammunition is short, a respite will be probably welcome.

Russian Aid to Prince Milan.

VIENNA, Sept. 19.—It is asserted that the Czar has given Prince Milan three million rubles, and that a large body of Cossacks are ready to enter Servia by way of Roumania.

Russia Expected to Accede to the Peace Proposals.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—A dispatch from Berlin says it is expected Russia will submit to the peace proposals of the guaranteeing powers.

The Opinions of the Powers on the Eastern Question Likely to be Divided.

A correspondent of the Times at Vienna, in a dispatch to that paper comments as follows on the unfavorable reception of the Porte's reply by all the Powers, except England. What seems to have been decisive with most of them was the attitude of the Russian court, where it was pronounced impertinent. Before the Porte's answer was given there had been unmistakable symptoms that the agitation going on in Russia was beginning to produce some effect in the court, and that danger of a divided opinion among the Powers existed. The supposition that the main objects of Marshal Manteuffel's mission to Warsaw was to counteract the effect of the national movement in Russia and restrain the Czar and government from taking an independent line of action has every probability. In view of the state of feeling in Russia. The only way of avoiding a schism among the Powers was by inducing the Porte to make, formally, a concession in regard to an armistice. Consequently the Austrian ambassador was immediately informed that the compromise in regard to an armistice was not deemed satisfactory, and he was instructed to use all his influence to induce the Porte to grant, formally a cessation of hostilities, which it had already granted de facto. Russia, with whom, above all, an active exchange of ideas has been made with regard to the conditions of peace proposed by England, seems rather disposed to be satisfied with this general basis, and it ought not, therefore, to be impossible to frame a settlement which might be accepted on all hands; but it remains to be seen whether the form in which the Turks have granted the suspension of hostilities will be considered satisfactory.

Baring's Report on the Bulgarian Atrocities.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—The report of Baring, secretary of the British legation at Constantinople, on the atrocities committed by the Turks in Bulgaria is at last published. It is accompanied by a note from Elliot to Lord Derby, in which the British ambassador acknowledges that Baring's report clearly establishes the fact that cruelties have been perpetrated sufficient to justify the indignation which they have called forth. He transmits a letter from Schuyler regarding the atrocities. The report is also accompanied by the programme of Bulgarian insurgents, which the Turks claim and Baring believes to be authentic. This programme provides for a general and simultaneous rising in a large number of villages, all of which are to be burned and the railways to be destroyed.

The government stores were to be seized; all Mussulmans who resisted were to be killed, and all Bulgarians who refused to join the insurrection are to be forced into the ranks of the insurgents. Baring in his report estimates that in the Landjak of Philippopolis 1,200 Bulgarians and 200 Mussulmans were killed and 52 villages burned. The Bulgarians burned 3 small Turkish villages. The report gives a circumstantial account of the destruction of each town. The most fearful tragedy of the whole insurrection occurred at Batak. Hearing that preparations for revolt were going on here, Achmet Agha was ordered to attack the town. He summoned the inhabitants to give up their arms, but distrusting his intentions they refused to obey. A desultory fight succeeded, lasting two days. On the 9th of May the inhabitants had a parley with Achmet, who solemnly swore that if they gave up their arms, not a hair of their heads would be touched. The villagers thereupon surrendered their arms. Then all the money in the place was demanded, and after securing which the Bashi-Bazouks set upon the people and slaughtered them like sheep. About 1,500 took refuge in a church and baffled all attempts to fire it from the outside. The Bashi Bazouks finally climbed to the roof of the church, tore off the tiles and threw burning pieces of wood and rags dipped in petroleum among the thickly packed mass of human beings below. At last they were forced to open the doors and the massacre was completed. The inside of the church was burned. The only survivor of this slaughter to be found was an old woman. She alone remaining alive of a family of seven.

Baring continues, I visited this place on the 31st of July; hardly a corpse had been buried. Where a man fell, there he now lies. In the streets at every step lay human remains rotting and sweltering in the sun. The stench was overpowering. Five thousand in all were killed here, and about 80 girls were carried off. The surviving inhabitants live in wooden huts outside the village in great misery. To Achmet Agha and his men belongs the distinction of having committed, perhaps, the most heinous crime that has stained the history of the present century. Nevertheless he has been decorated by his government, as have also several other leaders in the cruelties. The report concludes: There was undoubtedly a revolution which had to be crushed by armed force, but the government is to blame for calling on the Bashi Bazouks, for had it sent regular troops earlier, the Bashi Bazouks would have been unnecessary. The manner in which the rising was suppressed, was inhuman to the last degree, 60 innocent persons suffering for every guilty one.

The Political Situation of Turkey is very Serious.

The Standard's Belgrade correspondent says the political situation is serious. Russia, whose interest it is to have the war drag on, supports the war party. The great powers are pressing the Porte to extend the truce for a month. In this they are simply playing the game of Russia, whose influence is predominant.

A Crown to be Tendered to Prince Milan.

The proclamation of Prince Milan as King is denied, but a deputation are now on the way to tender Prince Milan the crown.

Servian ministers continue to protest against violations of the truce by the Turks.

A Times' dispatch from Belgrade says the Servian Minister of War left the city to meet the deputation coming to tender a crown to Prince Milan and turn it back. Public opinion is divided on this affair, some persons attach importance to it, while the greater number say it is not worthy the Servians' attention. Among the few, however, are persons who are in a position to turn this foolish business into a troublesome one. In the highest quarters the probability of the armistice ending in a peace is openly ridiculed. The Russians say they have seen the new currency which has stamped on it "Kingdom of Servia."

Russian Influence in Servia.

The Times' Vienna correspondent lays much stress on the assertion that the Servian government has lost all control over Tchernayoff who is acting without regard to orders received. Nearly all of the Russian volunteers belong to the most advance party in Russia, who care little for Servia or Russia, except as a means for the realization of their Panslavic and advanced social ideas. Servia is completely in their hands. The Powers may do all they can to stop the work, Turkey, even, Servia, may be anxious for peace, but it is always in the power of Tchernayoff to prevent any arrangement. Europe has no word to say to this, but when she has to move, the cause of the Russians in Servia becomes, to a certain point, the cause of Russia. The general conviction is that Russia would not abandon them. It remains to be seen what Tchernayoff will say to the resolution of the Servian government to take no notice of the proclamation of Milan as King.

Protest against Turkish Atrocities.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—A meeting to protest against Turkish atrocities was held in the church of Rio Moncur, D'Conway last night. Peter A. Taylor, a member of Parliament, presided. Conway and Bradlaugh made speeches. Resolutions were adopted thanking Schuyler for his exposure of the outrages and asking for the assembling of Parliament.

Treaty of Peace between Liberia and the Natives.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Standard reports that a treaty of peace has been entered into by the Liberian government with the natives of Cape Palmas, with whom a desultory warfare has been waged for some time past. The natives believed England would render them assistance, but the foreign office impressed them with the utter groundlessness of such expectations.

In the afternoon the corner stone of the new Catholic Church adjoining the Mission will be laid. There will also be a military and civic procession, and literary exercises. An address will be delivered in Spanish by General Vallejo and in English by Hon. J. W. Dwinelle. Invitations will be issued to all the State and city officials and prominent citizens. It is the intention of the managers to divest the celebration of all sectarian character, and clergymen of all denominations will be invited to participate in the ceremonies.

Trotting at Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 19.—The first race this afternoon was a trotting race for the 2:23 class, for a purse of $1,200, best 3 in 5. The starters were J. F. Jacobs' May Howard; A. F. Smith's George Treat; J. M. Killip's St. James, and I. Kennedy's Gold Note. Pool selling was unusually brisk, May Howard being the favorite at $150 to $100 for Treat, $82 50 for St. James, and $16 for Gold Note. Dan Voorhees and Defiance were withdrawn, the latter on account of lameness. Treat had the pole, St. James 2d, Gold Note 3d, with May Howard on the outside. The heat was won by George Treat in 2:31, May Howard second, Gold Note third, St. James bringing up the rear. The pools now changed, Treat being favorite at $310 to $165 for Howard, $82 50 for Gold Note and $52 50 for St. James. In the second heat there was considerable scoring before the horses got away. Treat again won by about three lengths, St. James second, May Howard third, Gold Note fourth. Time 2:28¼. The third, heat was closely contested. May Howard came in first by about half a length, St. James second, Treat third, Gold Note in the rear. Time 2:28½. Fourth heat. May Howard was again the winner, Treat second, St. James third. Time 2:28. The fifth heat was won by St. James easily in 2:28, Howard second, Treat third. St. James now led in the pools at $80, Treat $32, Howard $37. The former won the heat by several lengths in 2:29, Treat second, Howard third. The seventh and last heat was won by May Howard in 2:31¼, St. James second, Treat third.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

BILLS POURING IN—SOME WISE MEASURES AND SOME OTHERWISE—FEARFUL SUSPENSE.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

SALEM, Sept. 19, 1876.

So far this week the two houses have only been in session a few hours and but little has been actually accomplished, though a good many measures looking to changes in the laws of the State and the establishment of new regulations for the conduct of the State Government have been set on foot. When the one all-absorbing question of who is to be Senator is settled, the Legislature will launch out fully into the business before it, and though the work promises to be vigorous and extensive, what actual advantage will accrue to the people of Oregon from this session is yet in the future; but there are those who are resting quietly in present attainments and have no particular ambition to explore the broad field of legislative discovery which lies before us, when there is a possibility that it may be barren of real advantages; who claim that all the work necessary to be done at this session could be finished up in 25 days as well and perhaps better than in 40. And, by the way, is there not danger of too much law making? Yesterday afternoon, bills, notices of bills, resolutions, memorials, etc., poured in upon the desk of the House clerk in great abundance, while the pages were constantly busy distributing printed copies of those which have been introduced in the Senate. Among the more important of the matters upon which it is proposed to legislate are common schools, transportation within the State, the penitentiary, the keeping of the insane, the promotion of immigration, etc., while every member, perhaps, has some local measures to present, and nearly every one has discovered some defect in our civil or criminal code which he seeks to remedy at this opportunity. Of course, a great many of the bills on all these subjects will fail; some will be laid on the table and never be taken up; some will be buried beyond resurrection in the pockets of committeemen, others will be in continently "squelched" in one house or the other, while a comparative few of the vast mass will become part of the laws of the State. There are already three bills before the House on the subject of common schools, the one introduced by Chambers and mentioned in a former letter, and two coming from the Senate. One of the latter, introduced by Vancleave, is brief and makes no change in the present law except to more clearly define the duties of teachers and "to prohibit the reading of any book, tract, or paper, or the imparting of any instruction to bias the minds of the pupils in favor of or against any religious system." It is thought the object sought by this bill is the exclusion of the Bible from the public schools. The words in quotations above point in that direction, if anything in the bill does. Another bill, by Mr. George, amends the textbook law so as to allow districts in which there are 1,000 or more children of school age to select their own text-books, but not to change oftener than once in four years; and changing the school age from 4 to 20 years to 6 to 21.

VanCleave has also introduced a bill in the Senate defining what property shall be exempt from taxation. The only lands exempt, if this bill becomes a law, will be those of the United States, of this State, or of the several counties, cities, towns, villages, or of school districts, and burial grounds. The bill exempts personal property the same as the old law.

A bill repealing the usury law has been introduced in the Senate by Wisdom, of Baker. It fixes the rate of interest when not agreed on by the parties at 10 per cent. per annum, but allows parties to contract for any rate. The measure has a good many friends and may pass.

Colvig has a bill in the Senate to amend the act to regulate the quarantine of vessels, compelling all vessels upon which the master or pilot may believe or have cause to believe any contagious disease may exist, to anchor such vessel at or below Smith's Point when coming into the Columbia, or two miles below Empire City when coming into Coos Bay. A refusal or failure to comply with the provisions of the bill subjects the offender to a penalty of $3,000 fine or three years' imprisonment.

The joint resolution by Whiteaker on the question of transportation, and VanCleave's memorial on the subject of Chinese immigration, have not yet been acted upon by the lower house.

The amendment appropriating $500 instead of $250 to defray the expense of exhibiting Oregon fruits at Philadelphia, is being discussed as I write. Fenton, Lawrence, Cheesman and others, have ably supported the amendment. A dispatch was read from Mr. Dufur announcing that Oregon has taken

The recommendation of the committee was adopted and bill passed as amended.

THE SUSPENSE

On the Senatorial question is terrible to those interested. As the time when the question will assume a tangible phase draws so very near, we will not give the many rumors now floating everywhere, lest the action of the two houses at noon may set them at rest before this reaches the eyes of your readers.

THE FIRST BALLOT

Has just been taken, and the bare result is all that I can give. [The details of the ballot appear in the telegraph report.] In the Senate, Grover 20; Nesmith, 1; Prof. T. F. Campbell, 1; Jesse Applegate, 7. In the House, Grover 25, Nesmith, 7; Applegate, 27; blank, 1; and the fun will go on for 24 hours longer. With Warren from Clatsop, Columbia and Tillamook, who is reported elected, in his seat, Grover would lack one vote of an election on joint ballot with the same votes he received to day.

Says the Seattle Tribune: A spring bed factory is to be started. A little building is to be erected on Front street for market purposes. A boat yard is in contemplation by a gentleman from up the Sound. Another gentleman, from Port Townsend, is here to see about moving here and going into a new business.

A new Catholic church was recently dedicated at Steilacoom by Rt. Rev. A. M. Blanchet. The bishop was assisted by Rev. F. Prefontaine and Rev. F. Brondel. The dimensions of the church are 38x20 and 16 feet high. Behind the church is built the priest's residence, 30x23 feet and finished like the church.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: Wheat continues to roll in at the depot. On Thursday last five hundred tons of wheat were delivered at the railroad terminus.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 20, 1876.

IS IT A TRIFLING MATTER?

Ex-Senator Trumbull, in his speech to the Democratic mass meeting at Chicago, scouted the idea that the expose of Tilden's income fraud will have any influence in the election. He treated it as a matter of exceedingly small importance; merely the petty defamation peculiar to a personal campaign, and thought the story unworthy to be seriously referred to. It is evident that Mr. Trumbull differs radically from the majority of intelligent Democrats as well as Republicans, in his view of this matter. If the prominence given to it in the very first Republican journals of the nation proves that they consider it a very important matter, the shuffling and explaining and prevaricating with which it is met by the Democratic organs shows they too regard it as worthy of public attention. If it is a matter of no particular consequence, why do Mr. Tilden's friends and the organs of his party exhaust their ingenuity with inventing explanations? Why make such ado about it, if there is nothing in the story which ought to influence the decision of intelligent voters? The truth is, the moral sense of the people of the United States is not so debauched as Mr. Trumbull would have it understood to be. Whether Mr. Trumbull regards defrauding the Government and clinching the fraud with perjury as a trifling matter or not, people do not generally so regard it; and the Democratic politicians, with the exception of Mr. Trumbull, appear to have a very clear comprehension of the real state of public sentiment on the subject. Mr. Tilden made a return in 1863 to the assessor of internal revenue of his income of the year 1862, in which he reported only $7,118, and he made an affidavit to the correctness of that return. Some thirteen years afterwards, to-wit, in the present year, in a suit in court, he had occasion to make a statement under oath of certain items of his income in 1862, in which he specified two particular fees of $10,000 each, which he had received for legal services in certain railway litigation. That, of course, attracted attention and set his political opposers to investigating the subject; and this investigation so far, has disclosed the receipt by him of income to the amount of over $100,000 in 1862. It is claimed that even this large sum is but the smaller part of his actual receipts during that year, and that if the truth were known the figure would be placed at nearly a quarter of a million. Is this a trivial thing to bring up against a man who is named by a great political party as its first representative and candidate for chief magistrate of the nation? Is this too small a matter to be worthy of consideration by the voter who is asked to assist in elevating the same man to the high trust to which he aspires? Is this a matter that should weigh nothing in estimating the character of a man who expects to secure the suffrages of the people mainly on account of his honesty and his pledges to reform the public service and eliminate therefrom the corruptions and peculations that have destroyed the popularity of the present administration? Hardly.

And then, is the circumstance of his subsequently refusing, for nearly ten years, to make any return at all of his income, and thus defrauding the government out of thousands more, so insignificant a matter as to be unworthy of notice? First a false oath to perpetrate a fraud and save a few hundred or a few thousand dollars of tax due to the government. Then a shorter road and a less perilous one to the same point—a refusal to make any return, leaving the assessor to make an assessment as best he could, with the former false return as the basis upon which he would naturally proceed in estimating the probable amount of taxable income; is all this such a trifling matter as Mr. Trumbull would make it out? Let the conscientious voter answer this question to his own satisfaction before he casts his vote in November. Let him say, not as a slave of party, but as an intelligent man, having the welfare of the country more at heart than the success of any political party, whether a man against whom all these things can be truthfully charged is just the man to have placed in his hands the administration of the government, with all its immense volume of patronage and its incalculable opportunities for, and temptations to, exactly the same species of dishonesty.

THE NEED OF AN ASSESSOR.

We trust the members of the Common Council will not deem it impertinent if we offer some suggestions upon a subject which they have had before them lately, and must have before them again soon. We refer to the appointment of a city assessor. It is certainly time this office were filled. The assessment for the next year's revenue should be going on now. In fact, in order to allow time to have the work well done, it should have been well under way by this time, and it certainly is time it were commenced. The Mayor has nominated for the position a man admitted to be capable and well qualified for the duties; but the appointment has not been confirmed. The councilmen, we are sure, have acted in the matter of these appointments with the best of motives and strictly within the line of their rightful powers as they understand them. But we cannot but think they are carrying their exercise of the power of confirmation or rejection of the Mayor's nomination beyond the limits contemplated by the charter. They are not the appointing power. That is vested in the Mayor. The Council have only to confirm or reject, not to appoint in the first instance; and it seems a fair construction of the charter to say that it contemplates that the selection of the officer is vested solely in the Mayor, and the Council should confirm, unless their is special cause for rejection. That, if we mistake not, is the view held and acted on by the United States Senate, which never refuses to confirm the President's appointments except for good cause, and by all legislative bodies so far as we are advised. We make these suggestions in the most friendly spirit toward the councilmen, and would not be understood as intending to reflect in the slightest degree upon their motives. Nor have we any such relations with either the Mayor or the person he has named as would influence us in the matter. The public interests certainly do demand that the nomination by the Mayor of a person to fill the vacancy in the assessor's office, whether of the same person heretofore nominated or some other qualified person, should be confirmed unless there be some stronger reason for rejection than the preferences of the council for some other person. As to the other offices, to which the appointment is vested in the Mayor, with the consent of the council, the case is not so urgent as the matter of the assessorship, because the others are all filled by the old officers who, under the charter, continue to perform the duties of their respective offices till their successors are qualified. But the assessor must be appointed or the work of assessing must be left undone, which would greatly obstruct the operations of the city government. We are not urging the appointment of any particular person, but there should be an appointment of some capable person without further delay.

Senator George's bill relating to assessment of property does not go to the bottom of the subject as we hoped it might. So far as it goes it is good, but it fails to touch the root of the evil, if we have read it right. The plan on which the bill proceeds is to assess against each county such an amount of the State's expenses, and leave it to the counties to equalize assessments within their respective limits. But how are the State assessors created by this bill to know what proportion of the State's expenses they ought to assess against each of the several counties, without first equalizing the assessments in all the counties; and how can such an equalization be made without going into the details of the county assessment rolls. The only way to make the assessments thorough and thoroughly just, if we do not mistake, is to commence with the county assessment and equalize the roll right through. At best the assessment and collection of taxes is in the nature of things more imperfect than almost any other branch of the public service. Any legislation that does not provide for a thorough probing of the taxpayers' conscience in the matter of giving in their property and an equally thorough probing of the conscience of the local assessor in making his return, will provide no adequate remedy for the evils of which there is so much and so just complaint.

The Republican members of the Legislature did just the right thing yesterday in casting their votes for Hon. Jesse Applegate for Senator. Though the party is in the minority, and may not have much hope of winning over enough votes from the Democrats to enable them to elect a Senator, the vote of the entire Republican strength in the Legislature is a high compliment, and, in this case, bestowed upon one who, in many public positions as well as in private life, has proved himself worthy of it. If the anti-Grover Democrats wish to show themselves above the thralldom of party rule, they have an opportunity; let them unite with the Republicans and elect Jesse Applegate to the United States Senate.

Senator George has introduced a bill to reconstruct the school law of this State, which is, perhaps, about a fair compromise between the State-Uniformity plan and the District-Uniformity plan with respect to text books. It provides for State uniformity substantially the same as under the present law, but allows districts containing 1,000 or more children of school age to determine for themselves what text books they will use, such determination to be for four years. It is apparent that the principle of uniformity of books, in some form, has the approval of the educated and the educators of the State.

D. K. Warren, of Astoria, who has been elected, joint Senator from Clatsop, Columbia and Tillamook counties to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Sol. H. Smith, has not yet been admitted to his seat, owing to the non-arrival of the official returns from Columbia county. Should he not be admitted to his seat before the ballot to-day, there will be but 89 members in the joint convention, and 45 votes, the number received by Governor Grover in the separate ballot yesterday, will be a majority, and will elect. Should Warren have a vote, it will require 46 to elect.

Just before the second Democratic State convention in New York the following item appeared in the Albany Evening Journal:

RUPTURE!

No More Metallic Trusses Used!
No More Suffering from Iron Hoops or Steel Springs!

THE SUPERIORITY OF OUR ELASTIC Trusses over the rigid Iron Hoops, which in former days were the only resource of the ruptured, admits of NO ARGUMENT.

By means of this appliance the pressure on the Rupture itself can be made uniform and continuous, and to the extent required in each case, until a slight inflammation of the parts is secured, and the consequent effusion of lymph which is essential to a healing process, and from this time to the conclusion of the treatment, the pressure, being entirely within the control of the patient, can be lessened daily as the adhesion progresses and the body becomes sound. All cases of reducible Hernia are permanently relieved without regard to the age of the patient or the duration of the injury, while in its action it is wholly free from all the cruelty that has characterized the treatment of the malady with tortuous Metal Trusses from the earliest age to the present day. Your attention is called to the following facts:

1st—There are no springs to press upon, or to injure the back.
2d—It is simple in construction, and not liable to get out of order.
3d—This instrument is worn with perfect ease while riding horseback.
4th—The Rupture is retained and the pressure the same while in any position.
5th—It has none of the injurious results of metallic Trusses.
6th—It will perform radical cures when all others fail.
7th—It is worn with ease and comfort night and day, which cannot be said truthfully of an metal Truss whatever.

Experience shows that all tempered spring Trusses necessarily press upon and often disease parts of the body that before were in a perfectly healthy condition. Lumbago and other equally distressing ailments are not unfrequently the outgrowth of such pressure, and in view of this fact it becomes a matter of decided consequence to avoid like calamities, if possible.

Examination Free. The closest scrutiny of physicians solicited.

Beware of Bogus articles called Elastic Trusses. Dr. ROWE, Inventor and Patentee of Elastic Trusses. All parties infringing either by sale or manufacture, will be dealt with in such manner as the law provides.

CITY.

THE LATE WESLEY J. JACKSON.—In the New Hampshire Sentinel, published in Keene, N. H., of August 31st, we find the following obituary notice of Wesley J. Jackson, beloved son of Mr. Jackson, our highly [illegible] townsman: "In Andover, Mass., of brain fever and heart disease, Wesley J. Jackson, of Portland, Oregon, aged 19 years and 11 months. He was a young man of [illegible] promise, making many friends during his stay in Keene, as well as Andover, who [illegible] sorrow that he has been cut down so young. Naturally a very quick scholar, but [illegible] beyond his strength, he has been suddenly called away. From his friends in Andover we are assured everything was done to save him. Principal Bancroft, who conducted the services before his body was sent to its resting place, cared for him as one of his own children. We rejoice that he had a Christian hope. Much of the time during the last days of his illness was spent in prayer. All the circumstances (writes Mr. Bancroft), were just as beautiful and pleasant as they could be to his friends. He was a member of the [illegible] church in Portland. We can but [illegible] that the distant home, so suddenly bereaved, has so much to console them in this overwhelming sorrow. We can but hope he has gone to one of Christ's waiting mansions."

[illegible] COOS BAY TELEGRAPH LINE.—A few days ago Mr. Crouch went out to Roseburg for the purpose of superintending the [illegible] of the new line to be built between [illegible] and Coos Bay. On reaching [illegible] Mr. Crouch started at once for Coos Bay. He will commence work soon building the line from Empire City toward Roseburg. Mr. [illegible] is now at Roseburg with a [illegible] and will commence to construct [illegible] the bay. Work will be prosecuted [illegible] both ends until the two forces of [illegible] meet. All the necessary material will [illegible] from San Francisco to Coos Bay, [illegible] distributed along the new line as [illegible]. Work will be crowded forward with all [illegible] vigor. It is expected to have the new line finished by the 1st of November.

PROF. T. W. JOHNSON.—This able and successful [illegible] has taken his departure from [illegible] to take his place as President of the University at Eugene City, which is to [illegible] next. Mr. Johnson is a graduate [illegible] and has been Principal of the High School in this city for the last [illegible] with credit to himself, profit to [illegible] the satisfaction of parents and [illegible] judges of his work. It is understood [illegible] to remain in his [illegible] if he could have done so consistently [illegible] of professional propriety. It [illegible] that dissatisfaction is felt in [illegible] some of the management [illegible] schools which will receive notice [illegible] opportunity occurs.

[illegible] TRAVEL.—Three young men [illegible] New Year and rode [illegible] City yesterday. One [illegible] be rather rough on his [illegible] and [illegible] on the return trip [illegible] of the others, preferring to [illegible] overtook and passed him, [illegible] this city one hour ahead. The snail-[illegible] has determined to take another [illegible] in future. Oh, Shaw!

[illegible] M. Day, Raffety, than [illegible] in East Portland, [illegible] from San [illegible] for the last year has [illegible] the [illegible] of Dr. [illegible] establishment. He expects [illegible] weeks in this State, [illegible] he will visit relatives and [illegible] as hale and happy as he [illegible].

[illegible] To-day the Republican Convention convenes at [illegible] of placing in nomination [illegible] for Delegate to Congress. [illegible] Territorial Convention [illegible] for the same purpose [illegible] have been effected by [illegible] will be furnished with the [illegible] at the earliest practicable [illegible].

[illegible] MEETING.—This (Wednesday) [illegible] will be a meeting of [illegible] the Hayes and Wheeler Club, [illegible] in East Portland, at Bartel's, [illegible] will be addressed by Hon. [illegible] Meeting will be held [illegible] It is hoped there will be a [illegible] the citizens of East Portland [illegible] city are cordially invited to attend.

[illegible] FAIR.—Mr. Wm. Bigham, [illegible] the Dalles yesterday, bringing [illegible] which are to go into [illegible] the State Fair. These animals [illegible] and came from good [illegible] brother to Billy Bigham, [illegible] with the Centennial [illegible] from Norwich and the [illegible].

ROYAL MARIONETTES.—The justly celebrated McDonough & Earnshaw's Royal Marionettes whose marvelous exhibitions in San Francisco drew such large houses, are now en route north, and expect soon to reach this city. The season will open in Victoria on the 25th of September, and continue through one week. On the way South, the Sound towns will be visited probably. The company will open at the State Fair Grounds October 9th, and continue for one week, when Portland will be visited. The combination includes some very expert English and French workers, soloist, a full chorus and band—22 people in all. Two cars are required to transport the baggage, paraphernalia, transformation of scenes, etc., from which some idea of the magnitude of the Marionettes can be formed. To properly exhibit, it requires a stage 22 feet deep, 36 feet wide and 18 feet high. Such being the case, only the larger towns can be visited. Mr. Dan. G. Waldron, who visited Portland last year, with the Bell Ringers, is the Business Manager of the Marionettes.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR.

HORSES NOW IN TRAINING.

HILLSBORO, Sept. 19, 1876.

The horses at the fair grounds are classed as follows: Stables of

MR. GEO. COGGAN,

Consisting of four horses, John Taylor trainer. This stable is led by Osceola, of notoriety; also Billy Nutts, the fastest quarter horse (it is said) in Oregon. The next comes bay mare Emma McCormick, thoroughbred, by imported Australia; dam Maggnetta, by Mahomet; also a trotting mare, name unknown.

G. W. SCOGGIN

Also comes in with a stable of fine young horses, Wm. Tompkins, trainer. This stable is headed by the sorrel mare Alpha, 1 year old, Jack Miner, dam by Humboldt. Next Brother Romray, br. colt, 2 years old, by Norwich, dam, Miner, by Napa. The next is a sorrel gelding, Dasher, 2 years old, by Miner, dam Dasher. The next is a sorrel filly, property of S. G. Stott, Lenora, 3 years old, by Napa, dam Miner. And last, least, and fastest, is Kitty Muggins, by Napa, dam Miner. For activity and untamed deviltry this little swinge cat has no equal, but, unfortunately, a ring formed on the hoof, and recently a part of the hoof has broken off close to the quick. The next is

PONY YOUNG'S

Stable, from Walla Walla, or what is known here as the Kentucky stables. He leads off with sorrel stallion Emmet, by War Dance, dam Figaro, followed by Rosa Mansfield, by Mahomet, dam [illegible]; also black trotting stallion, 6 years old, by Abdallah, dam [illegible]. Then we have

MR. JOHN IRVIN,

Mr. Taylor trainer, bay filly, three years old, Banetta, by Norwich, dam 2d Rifleman, a very fine animal in good trim.

WILLIAM TENNANT

Appears upon the turf fully equipped this year. He leads off with Tom Merry; he has also Billy Cornelius, the property of Ben. Cornelius, of this county; which said Billy is a brown gelding three years old, by Norwich, dam, "He I Know," a very fine animal, sorrel filly two years old, by Napa, dam Snowflake, very fine prospects, if she don't commit suicide.

WHITE BROTHERS

Have sorrel stallion Ophir, also bay gelding, three years old, Sank Owens, [pedigree mislaid], gray gelding two years old, by Napa, dam Greyhound, property of N. Westfall, very fast but wants nursing to get into condition; also, sorrel gelding two years old, by Napa, dam Lummux.

The horses are doing very well; Osceola it is thought is improving on our track, in fact the older horses are doing fine, as well as the colts, barring an occasional skinned nose or shin incident to the breaking of a lot of colts. The blacksmith says he hopes it will be another century before another batch of just such colts come in to be trained at once. Horse breeders ought to catch their colts early in the spring and break them before sending them off to train for the fairs, and much valuable time and hard treatment would be saved. The man that goes upon the track only a month before the fair with a fiery colt, has to resort to means to control them (for lack of time) that he otherwise would not adopt, especially if he has other horses to care for.

Two additional stands are being erected on the grounds, and still we haven't enough. The sprinklers, together with the heavy shower we have had, aided by the harrows and rollers, is making our track the best in the State for running horses. It is certainly in better condition than I have ever seen it.

The shade trees are all thriving, and if the marshals look after them, in one or two more years we will have shade plenty. Among the most sensible things done by our superintendent, W. R. Jackson, is the moving of the circus over on the west side of the pavilion, away from the horse barns. As the crowd usually congregate around the circus and show tents, it is hoped that the horses will be relieved from the usual jam. We have always had ground enough, but our superintendents have always persisted in jamming everything into one corner, leaving the balance of the grounds vacant.

The brass band, J. F. Hopkins trainer, is in good condition, and give promise of being a credit to the county, and will add materially to the pleasure of the Fair.

Dr. Warner's Health Corset cures dyspepsia. Sizes 19 to 38. At Mrs. M. A. Warner's, Third street, near Morrison, Portland, Oregon.

To enjoy a pleasant evening, visit the "Fountain," presided over by Peter Wilhelm [illegible] the best liquors, wines and beer. The celebrated Brunswick, Blake & Co.'s billiard and pool tables.

Call on M. Rosenblatt, 79 Front street, for men and boys' clothing. A large stock of fall and winter styles just received by the John L. Stephens. No better goods in the market.

The fall and winter styles of fashionable silk hats are now introduced at Currier & Co's. The best quality will be made to order for $9. Latest styles of felt hats by every steamer.

Room 21, Monnastes' Building, First street, between Morrison and Yamhill.

A TESTIMONIAL.

MRS. S. LOBB—Dear Madam: I commenced using your Hair Producer about five months ago, my hair being thin and falling out rapidly, accompanied with an intense itching of scalp. Shortly after I commenced using your preparations, the itching ceased entirely, and the hair stopped coming out, and having used the remedy according to directions, my hair is growing thick and strong, with every prospect of being fully restored. Yours truly,

JAMES LADU, Mount Coffin, W. T.

No more use for wigs. Warner's Hair Producer will produce a new, natural growth of hair on any polished bald head at any age from any cause except "scalding." For treatment, &c., call on or address Alex Warner or Mrs. E. S. Wass, Third and Morrison, Portland, Oregon.

D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice, mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. Is extraordinarily successful in treating female complaints.

Sore eyes speedily relieved. The worst form of piles cured, and the most malignant cancers eradicated root and branch without the use of the knife, or the money refunded.

PILES: NO CURE, NO PAY! PILES!

PILES OR HEMORRHOIDS, FISTULA IN ANO AND OTHER DISEASES OF THE RECTUM CAN BE CURED. Those suffering from the above distressing complaints would do well to call and see me soon, as I expect to go to Olympia in a few days, and visit other points on the Sound. I shall be absent a month or six weeks. Remember if I do not give relief and cure you, I shall not charge you for any services or the medicines used. To persons of limited means I would say, should you suffer because you are poor? My answer is, no! COME AND BE CURED. Rooms on Third street, between Washington and Alder; P. O. Box 217, Portland, Oregon. DR. C. F. WIGHTMAN.

N. B. Persons writing will please enclose stamp for return postage. Diseases of private character specially treated without mercury.

SEATTLE ITEMS.

Our correspondent at Seattle sends the following items under date of Sept. 18th:

Quite a number of Seattleites talk of attending the Oregon State Fair this fall.

The DAILY OREGONIAN is becoming a great favorite here, now that the daily mail brings the paper every evening.

The steamer North Pacific will be out soon. She will in future have headquarters at Seattle instead of Olympia, as formerly.

The new school house at Belltown is a fine looking and well finished structure. More than 40 children attend school there daily.

The ship Eldorado, Capt. Hayden, is now hauled out and will sail for San Francisco to-morrow with about 1,800 tons of Seattle coal.

Several severe cases of dyphtheria exist in Seattle at present. A young daughter of Mr. Reswell Scott, died of that complaint here last week.

The Dakota will finish loading coal to night and will sail to morrow for Victoria. Several of our citizens are passengers for San Francisco by her.

Capt. Robinson's new propeller, the Dispatch, will soon be out again, after having had a fine cabin built upon her, and several improvements to her machinery made.

As time of the city and county election draws nearer, it is amusing to observe how attentive and polite the various aspirants are to distant acquaintances and strangers.

A large number of buildings are being erected in Seattle at this time. Business men complain of "dull times," but they will all agree that this is the liveliest town on the coast.

A race from Seattle to Tacoma recently took place between the Tacoma, Mr. Ackerson's new tug and the Annie Stewart, in which it is claimed that the Stewart "got away" with the fine propeller.

The Alida now carrying the daily mail from Tacoma to this place, will be laid up and the Annie Stewart will take her place, meeting the Pacific here and transferring passengers and through freight to her.

J. M. Colman, Esq., who went below some time since for the purpose of purchasing an engine and iron for the S. & W. W. R. R., returned last week and reports that the rails are now on the way to this place for the completion of the first section of the road, and that he has also purchased an engine which will arrive in due time.

The grading, tresseling and piling in the first fifteen mile section of the S. & W. W. railroad is very nearly if not entirely completed. It is confidently expected that by the first of November trains will be running over the road daily. This will prove of the greatest benefit to Seattle, as it will give employment to a large number of employes, greatly increase the production of coal at the Renton and Talbot mines, and in many ways strengthen and brighten Seattle's prospects.

If you want a fine suit of clothing for little money go to Kohn's, the leading Clothier.

DISCOVERY.

Dr. Halpruner wishes to announce to the public that his operations and medicines for the treatment of CORNS, BUNIONS, etc., are all of his own discovery, and are entirely different from any other chiropodist's treatment on the coast. Persons afflicted with CORNS, etc., can have them treated at their residence or place of business by sending their order through the postoffice, or leaving them at J. Kohn's clothing store.

THE RAW, BLUSTERING WINDS OF WINTER AND EARLY SPRING, search out the weaknesses of all who are predisposed to Lung Complaints, and in consequence, Colds, Coughs and Bronchial Disorders everywhere prevail. Those who have contracted Colds should be especially careful, and not imprudently wait until by constant coughing they so irritate and rack their Lungs as to bring on themselves a very serious Pulmonary Affection. Let them rather treat their symptoms rationally, and at once, and by the prompt use of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, cure their Colds, and heal all accompanying Soreness of the Chest.

NOTICE.

The undersigned in taking leave of Portland returns his sincere thanks for the liberal patronage that has been bestowed, and would bespeak for his successors a continuance of the same.

Work resumed at the Brownsville woolen mills.

State Temperance Union will convene at Salem to day.

The Albany library is in running order, with J. D. Brower as librarian.

About sixty Warm Spring Indians went into camp at Albany on Monday.

Twenty-six mills is the tax levy for Umatilla county, two mills larger than last year.

Burglars attempted to enter the house of W. S. Moore, of Salem, on Saturday night.

The wife of Hon. J. T. Crooks, member from Linn county, died at Marion station Sunday.

Joseph Keeney was thrown from a sulky on the Union county fair grounds, on the 14th, and had his leg broken.

Foot pads attempted to rob H. K. Davis of Pudding river, in Salem, on Thursday night. They got away with a ring from Mr. Davis' hand.

A few days ago a son of Chas. Johnson, of Howell Prairie, Marion county, was kicked to death by a runaway horse while riding the animal.

J. H. Turner has been appointed school superintendent of Umatilla county—the office being vacant by virtue of J. C. Arnold failing to qualify.

J. L. Griffin, who lives near the Dalles, has forwarded to the centennial a fine sample of the little club wheat, raised on his farm. It is spring sown, and yielded 65 bushels per acre.

Several hogs having died from eating melons from a patch belonging to Wm. Penland, of Hepner, that gentleman had the melons analyzed and strychnine was found therein. Evidently an attempt at wholesale poisoning.

On September 15th, Mr. George Applin, living a short distance from Champoeg, had between seven and eight hundred bushels of grain destroyed by fire. [illegible] stacked up near the barn, and the fire was the work of an incendiary. Mr. Applin lost a barn full of grain last year.

On Sunday evening, while Mr. E. Esteb, a merchant, and Samuel B. Burch, son of Hon. B. F. Burch, were standing on the sidewalk in Buena Vista, conversing together, one Frank Wayne, a painter, came along intoxicated, with a double-barrel shotgun in his hand, he deliberately took aim at them and fired. The charge took effect on both, Burch receiving ten or a dozen shot in different parts of the body, and Esteb one. Mr. Esteb is only slightly wounded. Young Burch died from the effects. One of the shot is supposed to have entered the right lung, and another ranged downward toward the bowels. The remainder of the charge took effect in the right hip, leg and arm. Wayne was arrested and held for trial.

We would not recommend the frequent or constant use of any medicine. It is important to take even a good article judiciously. Parson's Purgative Pills are safe, prompt and reliable as a laxative or cathartic.

Base ball is undoubtedly good exercise and capital amusement, but it often occasions bruised eyes, broken shins and blistered hands. We can tell you that in all such cases, if Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is resorted to, it will reduce the swelling and stop the pain.

MY DEAR MADAM, try GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, and you will find it a far more effective beautifier than any cosmetic. It promotes a healthy circulation in the vessels of the skin, and keeps the pores open, the only legitimate modes of overcoming complexional defects.

Teeth like orient pearls set in cushions of rose;
A breath like the perfume the toilet bestows;
These are charms to win hearts, when all other charms fade,
But they can't be preserved without SOZODONT'S aid.

LYON'S KATHAIRON makes beautiful, glossy, luxuriant hair; prevents its falling out or turning gray. It has stood the test of 40 years. Is charmingly perfumed, and has no rival.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM preserves and restores the complexion; removes freckles, tan and sallowness; makes the skin soft, white and delicate. Its application cannot be detected.

PROPRIETORS
CYRUS NOBLE DISTILLERY,
OFFICES—34 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY; 38 & 30 MAIN STREET, CINCINNATI, OHIO; 223 CALIFORNIA STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 8, 1876.

Messrs. LILIENTHAL & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Gentlemen—I would report that I have made an analysis of your three brands of Noble Whisky distilled by you at Cincinnati, viz.:

I Crown Cyrus Noble Old Bourbon.
II " " " " "
III " " " " "

And find the same to be free from any deleterious substance, and particularly free from that very objectionable substance fusel oil, showing that great care has been taken in their manufacture.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. WAYNE,
Analytical Chemist.

CYRUS NOBLE DISTILLERY, 1st Dist., O.
CINCINNATI, April 1, 1876.

Messrs. LILIENTHAL & Co.

Gentlemen—I have just returned from a trip through Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia, undertaken for the purpose of examining the various distilleries in those districts, and I am now more than ever confirmed in the opinion, so often expressed to you, that your distillery is the most complete, and best conducted of any in the United States.

The careful selection of your grain, the purity of the water, the slower and more cautious [illegible] distillation, is what gives the NOBLE WHISKY its superior qualities, and has gained for it the reputation which it universally sustains throughout the United States.

Gratified that the 20 years devoted to the distillation of the CYRUS NOBLE WHISKY, has been attended with such happy results, I trust I may be spared to continue my labors in its interest, and that of its many patrons and consumers.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours faithfully,
CYRUS NOBLE.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The great reputation which our Cyrus Noble Whisky has enjoyed in medical practice throughout the Eastern States and Europe for a period of nearly 25 years, prompts us to bring it to the notice of the Public of the Pacific Coast for similar use.

Its absolute purity, having by analysis been found to be entirely free from FUSEL OIL, and the improved quality imparted to it by its being retained in store for at least from 5 to 6 years after distillation, has given to the Physician a remedy long sought for in his own Materia Medica.

The certificates we hold of its efficacious use in the treatment of cases where NERVOUS PROSTRATION exists and vitality is at a low ebb, as is frequently observed in forms peculiar to our country, of DYSPEPSIA, with its whole train of [illegible] troubles, of diseases of the LIVER and the BLADDER, of CONSUMPTION, affording effective and timely relief to the afflicted victim, and of [illegible] disease or blood poisoning, [illegible] as a disinfectant [illegible] are all highly gratifying to us, and we believe we owe it to our numerous patrons on the coast to use every endeavor to introduce it here.

Very respectfully,
LILIENTHAL & CO.,

PATENT INSIDES

WHAT IS A NEWSPAPER IN CONTEMPLATION OF LAW

[From the Independence (Mo) Sentinel]

Another decision has just been rendered in regard to what in contemplation of law is a newspaper and as to the legal publication of legal advertisements The case was before the Burlington county (N J) court A legal advertisement was published in a paper in that county, with a patent outside printed elsewhere, under which certain property was sold and the question arose whether 1st the publication had been legally made, and 2d whether the title vested on the purchaser The defendant to the suit, who had been divested of the property by the sale, put in the plea that the sale of the property advertised was not according to the mode provided by the statute which declares in New Jersey that all legal advertisements must be published in a paper printed in the county and of general circulation in the county—his counsel maintaining this had not been done, and hence the proceedings in the case were void and the title did not pass It being proven that the paper in which the advertisement was printed was partly printed outside of the county, and had but little circulation in it, was not therefore a paper of general circulation The exception of defendant's counsel was sustained by the court, and costs amounting to $32 50 were charged to plaintiff in the case

The fact seems to be that the plaintiff advertised defendant's property to recover satisfaction for a debt, in an ephemeral paper that had sprung up, at half rates from those charged by two other papers printed in the county, of general circulation and this piece of economy finally cost him three times the price his advertisement would have done had he in the first instance published it in a paper printed in the county of general circulation, and hence the advertising a costly experiment

[From the Warrensburg Journal]

The Pennsylvania Supreme court has made the above decision and for the life of us we cannot see how any court could decide otherwise, If one-half of a paper printed at Chicago or St. Louis and circulated in Johnson county is legal, it would be equally as legal to print it all there. We look forward to the time when all of the sales made by the sheriff and trustees, as well as administrators where the notices were published in patent papers in this State, will be held as void There is a bright future for lawyers as well as oppressed debtors who have been sold out under such notices, but the people must live and learn Will the county court of this county recognize such papers as legal advertising mediums?

THE DISPLAY OF BLOODED HORSES AT THE CENTENNIAL.

Col. W. H. Jenifer, of Baltimore Md., exhibits what is claimed to be the only thoroughly Arabian animal on the grounds, having been imported by himself under the Viceroy's special orders. The Colonel commanded the cavalry of the Viceroy for some time, and when he returned to this country brought the animal with him Immediately after this an order was issued prohibiting the exporting of any more horses out of the country for seven years It is a beautiful animal, white with slight black spots, clean-limbed, and so gentle that it can be driven by a lady. It is fifteen hands high and weighs 950 [illegible] The [illegible] the animal is about $10,000 L L Kerrett, of Cable county West Va., exhibits two milk white Arabians mares, a good match, without a black spot on them. The only difference in their close resemblance is the color of the eyes, one having dark and the other light eyes. They are of Excelsior stock William B Smith, of Hartford, Conn, shows the handsomest trotting stallion, Thos. Jefferson, who has trotted down to 2:23

The great interest in the exhibition, except in the professional horsemen, will center no breeding stallions In this particular the United States make a good showing but I fear is far outstripped by Canada, especially in point of numbers. With very few exceptions the animals from across the border are larger limbed than the American, this feature extending even to coach horses and driving animals The greatest in weight in this department is a Clydesdale stallion named Donald Dinnie, standing 17 hands high and weighing 2,200 pounds. The animal only reached this country last month Just here it is quite appropriate to mention the tall mule, the queen of Egypt twenty one and a half hands high, and weighing 2,200 pounds Out of the seventy horses which Canada has entered, the most noticeable in the exhibit is Royal Tom, who is owned by Wm Long, of Lansing Ontario He has won twelve prizes in England including the great York shire prize for immensity weighing nearly 2,300 pounds. The general contour of the animal is such as to attract attention notwithstanding there were dozens of the same sort and some nearly as large, in the arena The only trotter from Canada is Royal Harry, a five-year-old stallion by imported Saladin A high bred coach stallion is exhibited in British splendor by Andrew Somerville, of Huntingdon, Que. He is somewhat heavier in frame than is generally used in this country In the list of match teams which Canada exhibits are some that seem as if they could carry off half a small town if they were only made fast to it.

CURIOUS GROWTH OF A TREE.—Near No 53 Bl[illegible] street, in this city, stands a tree which has excited the wonder of all the dwellers in that vicinity It is maple, standing, perhaps, fifteen feet from other maples on either side. For three years it has been completely girdled for a space of about [illegible] three feet from the ground. During that time it has lived and flourished producing foliage which has attracted the attention of all observers for its peculiar brilliancy and [illegible] tint. The bark of the girdled portion was removed by natural decay and above that portion it is perfectly sound A natural aperture extends from the girdle upward about six feet, laying bare the somewhat decayed pith of the tree. And here is visible that which arouses the wonder and the theory of the vine. A vine of some variety it resembles an ivy vine seems to have grown up the hollow heart of the tree It appears plainly visible in the crevice. And thus the strange life and abnormal greenness are explained It is thought that the maple and the vine in its interior have combined, that the vine bears the sap past the area denuded of its bark, and that the extreme greenness of the verdure is due to the mingling of the life of the ivy The vine or shoot does not seem to have grown above the aperture and there is a possibility that it is a maple shoot What ever the truth may be the tree has lived under a combination of circumstances which would have killed an ordinary tree and it provides an opportunity for experiments by the students of sap flow in trees —Luca He ald

ROOM FOR MORE SHEEP—Last year we paid foreign countries $50 000 000 for woolen goods and $11 000 000 for manufactured goods When we have in the country 20 000 000 more sheep than we have now, we shall only produce the wool we use and yet there is no country on earth where sheep could be raised so profitably as in the United States. But we are coming every year nearer to supplying our own markets with the wool they demand In 1875 the wool clip of the country was nearly 200 000 000 pounds, while in 1860 it was only 65,000,000

A girl in Cincinnati recently overloaded her stomach with heavy wedding cake and retired early that she might dream of her future husband She dreamed that a man with a mouth curling under each ear one white eye a wig and an income of two dollars and eighty cents a year, came and sat on her bed board and she is in the worst kind of a cave of gloom now in consequence.

Ben Hill is reported a good deal as saying 'Under Tilden the South would be happy, under Hayes she would be quiet" Is the syllogism to be completed Happy is not quiet therefore under Tilden she would be turbulent"

The Wheat Crop of Great Britain

LONDON Sept 19—James Baird the well known [illegible] agriculturist [illegible] and statistician, writes to the Times in regard to the wheat crop as follows The condition and quality are all that can be desired but as threshing proceeds the yield continues more disappointing The land under wheat in the United Kingdom this year is three millions one hundred and thirty six acres which is six hundred and seventy eight thousand below the average of 1874 and the seven preceding years a decline of over 18 per cent on the average growth. The decline from last year is three hundred and seventy eight thousand acres but that will be more than compensated for by the increased yield per acre and the higher quality I put the gross product of the present crop at 10 000 000 quarters deducting 800 000 quarters for seed this will leave 80,000 quarters for consumption At the present rate of consumption with us we require for the coming year about 1 000 000 quarters from stocks on hand and freight importation This is the fourth year in succession in which America has been our main dependence If that should fail in any material degree it will be impossible to fill the gap elsewhere. In none of the European wheat exporting countries has there been an average crop British India has largely increased her export which in the last eight months reached nearly 6 per cent of our whole foreign supply With no quarter from which we can expect an increased supply, and with some prospect of a diminution of the American supply it is satisfactory to know that we begin with a large stock from the surplus of last year's import The very fine quality price. In consequence of the decrease an increase of cultivation we may before long expect such a moderate increase on the low price of the last two years as to leave some profit to both home and foreign growers
